You've lucked out and have a day to spend in the Garment District. How will you ever figure out what to do and where to start. We've got you covered with this continually updated list of the top spots in the neighborhood. You're a stylish Jack Bauer, and you have only 24 hours to enjoy the Garment District.

A Day In The DISTRICT

courtesy of www.garmentdistrictnyc.com

No. 1 Culture Espresso

You've got a long day ahead. Start off at one of our numerous independent cafés, like Culture Espresso who feature a carefully curated selection of coffees from producers who share their passion for quality

No. 2 Mood Fabrics

A day in the Garment District would not be complete without experiencing the fashion industry. Stroll down the Fashion Walk of Fame, be dazzled at M&J Trimming or visit the world famous Mood Designer Fabrics. Say "Hi" to Swatch!

No. 3 Lazzaras Pizza Cafe

Exploring the world of fashion must have left you famished. Exit the Bricken Arcade onto 38th Street to come face to face with Lazzara's Pizza, serving delicious square pies for over 30 years.

No. 4 Midtown Comics

With your belly full, head up to 40th street for some action & adventure. At the corner on 7th Avenue you'll find Spiderman, letting you know Midtown Comics is right around the corner and upstairs.

No. 5 OM Factory

You've stimulated your mind, it's time to get your body into the mix as well. OM Factory is the perfect place to stretch out while literally hanging out in one of their Aerial Yoga classes.

No. 6 Delmonico's Kitchen

All that defying gravity has worked up quite the appetite. It's time to visit one of our many restaurants. Delmonico's Kitchen is old school New York with a modern twist, just like today's Garment District

No. 7 Refinery Hotel

As you finish up your meal, and the sun goes down, there is no better place to be than up on top of the world at one of our excellent rooftop lounges. The Refinery Rooftop offers amazing year-round views of the city.
